THE REDUCED AND COMPREHENSIVE ENTRANCE EXAMINATION

ETH Zurich offers two types of entrance examinations:

Reduced entrance examination

If the candidate holds a degree that is very similar to, but not equivalent to, a Swiss Matura, the reduced entrance examination is sufficient in most cases. For detailed information on the admission requirements at Swiss universities and colleges for students with a foreign degree, please consult the country list of Swiss Universities. Find out about the admission requirements as early as possible, if possible 2 years before graduation, directly from the ETH Zurich Admissions Office.

Comprehensive entrance examination

If your own educational background is only partially similar to the Swiss Matura (fewer subjects or lower level than in the Swiss Matura), or if you do not have a Matura or a similar qualification, you must take the comprehensive entrance examination. Consult the country list of Swiss Universities.

ANNUAL COURSE 2024/25

The annual course consists of 24 weeks spring semester, January to August 2024 and 18 weeks fall semester, from August 2024 to January 2025.

Spring semester: This semester is designed for students who have an average mathematical background and/or who still lack a routine in scientific German. The topics of the subjects are covered from the ground up and a solid foundation is laid with regular oral and written examinations, in the scientific areas of mathematics and physics with weekly written tests and exercises. Students have enough time to acquire the knowledge and build a good foundation for their future studies at ETH.

Fall semester: This semester is designed as intensive and fast-paced exam preparation. The requirements for prior learning in the various subjects and German language skills are correspondingly high. More exam simulations are carried out. Thus, students develop a solid oral and written examination routine.

VARIANT: AUTUMN SEMESTER ONLY

For students who already have a very high level of knowledge in the natural sciences and scientific German, we also offer the option of attending only the fall semester. The subjects of the comprehensive ETH entrance examination English, German literature, Geography and History are designed as an annual course starting in the spring semester. Students who only attend the fall semester work on the topics of the spring semester in self-study with our online learning system including recordings of missed lessons.

For a personal assessment in the various subjects, please contact our secretary's office. We have decades of experience in assessing the various international qualifications.

For students who need to take an additional German test:
For admission to the ETH entrance examination, a German C1 "good" or a C2 certificate is required, and must be submitted by 31 st March before the entrance examination. Additional information: https://ethz.ch/de/studium/bachelor/bewerbung/auslaendische-reifezeugnisse/sprachanforderungen.html
* We reserve the right to reduce the number of lessons or charge the subject-specific private lesson rate for individual lessons should 5 or less students be enrolled in these subjects.  We reserve the right to reduce the number of lessons should 8 or less students be enrolled in these subjects. The reduction of the lessons will not affect an ideal exam preparation (with 8 or fewer students, we need fewer lessons for an optimal exam preparation than with large classes).

COURSE REGISTRATION, COSTS AND TERMS OF PAYMENT

The number of students who can attend the course is limited, therefore registrations will be considered according to the date the course fee is credited.
